FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Weather Break Allows more Nighttime Work for Sacramento Region

SACRAMENTO—The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) announced today that construction crews will continue nighttime work on Interstate 5 in South Sacramento to the downtown area and for the Interstate 80 “Across the Top” project in north Sacramento for the rest of the week.

Northbound motorists travelling on Interstate 5 can expect lane restrictions between Florin Road and Q Street from 10 p.m. - 5 a.m. tonight and into the weekend to repair damaged concrete for the #2 and 3 lanes at various locations.

East- and westbound motorists travelling along Interstate 80 in north Sacramento can expect various ramp closures and lane restrictions from 10 p.m. – 5 a.m. tonight and into the weekend for striping work as part of the $133 million 80 Across the Top project. Project completion is scheduled for later this year.

Motorists are reminded to be alert for workers and equipment in the construction zone.

Caltrans will issue updates on Twitter @CaltransDist3 and on Facebook at CaltransDistrict 3. For real-time traffic, click on Caltrans QuickMap at: <http://quickmap.dot.ca.gov/>
